EDITORIAL

Several texts prepared for publication in BIORHEOLOGY, of which our Journal is 'A Companion Journal', are reprinted. They include the Editorial 'BIORHEOLOGY in Its Twenty-Fifth Year of Publication' and the article entitled 'Robert Gwyn Macfarlane's Contribution to the Organization of Biorheology - and Other Reminiscences'.

We are particularly glad to include in this first issue of volume 8 the contribution by one of us (A.L.C.), entitled 'A Tribute to Robert Maxwell, Founder and Publisher of Pergamon Press', to whom we are grateful for the publication of our Journal.

We had hoped to publish in this first issue Part I of the Proceedings of the Fifth European Conference on Haemorheology, held at Bordeaux, France from 29 June to 1 July 1987. We expect that the publication of the Proceedings of this Conference will begin with issue number 3 of our Journal.
