

CONTENTS VOLUME 3

Editorial	1
Information science education in the United States: characteristics and curricula CAROL TENOPIR	3
The overlooked factor: the resource issue as the shaper of library and information school curricula DONALD DAVINSON and NORMAN ROBERTS	29
Education and training of library personnel in Nigeria: some challenges for the next decade BRIGGS C. NZOTTA	39
Outline of a methodology for training in librarianship (Short Communication) JACQUES MANIEZ	51
Conference Report	55
Book Reviews	59
News	71
Calendar of Events	75
Editorial	81
Education for research in library and information science: a basis for policy analysis in the Nordic countries S. SCHWARZ	83
Artificial intelligence and expert systems research and their possible impact on information science education HAROLD BORKO	103
Styles and strategies of processing information: implications for professional education NIGEL FORD	115
The Konstanz conception for a postgraduate programme in information science: information counselling and information management ELISABETH VOGEL	133
Accreditation for all the information professions (Short Communication) TRUDI BELLARDO	149
Conference Reports	151
Book Reviews	159
Book Notices	179
News	183

Calendar of Events	193
Editorial	201
Education for new professional roles in the information society MARTA L. DOSA	203
Sticking in the watershed for 12 years: towards restructured librarianship and information science programmes in Denmark LEIF KAJBERG	219
Education for serials librarianship: what are the not so obvious basic components? MICHAEL E.D. KOENIG	237
Conference Report	247
Book Reviews	249
Book Notices	257
News	259
Calendar of Events	265
Editorial	273
Library and information science education for Yugoslavia: an external view of needs and prob- lems WILFRED L. SAUNDERS	275
Library education and training for sub-professionals in developing countries E.D.T. KULARATNE	283
Bibliometric analysis of master theses in information sciences (Postgraduate studies in librarian- ship, archivistics, museology and information science, 1961–1984, Zagreb, Yugoslavia) M. TUDMAN, M. MILAS, N. TUDOR-SILOVIC and D. BORAS	291
Prototype identification using a knowledge-base management system (Short Communication) F. GIBB and B. CRONIN	307
Book Reviews	313
News	329
Translations of Abstracts	339
Calendar of Events	343
Author Index	353
Contents Volume 3	355