

AmI'09 best paper award by JAISE

During the 3th edition of the European Conference on Ambient Intelligence (AmI'09) held in Salzburg (Austria) last November, JAISE provided a prize to the best paper of the conference. The prize for the best paper consists of one year free subscription to JAISE and other products accessible through MetaPress kindly provided by IOS Press, the publisher of JAISE.

The chairs of the conference, informed by the review process conducted by the program committee members, selected the paper:

“Adaptive User Profiles in Pervasive Advertising Environments” by Florian Alt, Moritz Balz, Stefanie Kristes, Alireza Sahami Shirazi, Julian Mennenöh, Albrecht Schmidt, Hendrik Schröder, Michael Goedicke from the University of Duisburg-Essen, Germany

JAISE and IOS Press plan to extend this practice to other major events in related fields as a way to stimulate high quality research around the world in the area of Ambient Intelligence and Smart Environments.
