- Conference Communications*
Proceedings of the 5th European Conference on Clinical Hemorheology, 29 June-1 July 1987, Bordeaux, France
- Part II*
Round Table: Rheological Tests for Monitoring Disease Activity
- R.M. Bauersachs, R.B. Wenby and H.J. Meiselman 1 Determination of specific red blood cell aggregation indices via an automated system
- S. Forconi, M. Guerrini and D. Pieragalli 27 Can red cell deformability be measured in clinical medicine?
- J. Harkness 35 Comparison of the E.S.R. and plasma viscosity tests
- M.W. Rampling and G. Martin 41 A comparison of the Myrenne Erythrocyte Aggregometer with older techniques for estimating erythrocyte aggregation
- Round Table: Rheological Effects of Drugs in Vascular Disease*
- C. Motta, F. Conan, M. Roche and M. Thao Chan 47 Lymphocyte membrane fluidity in peripheral vascular disease patients after treatment with pentoxifylline
- C. Pfafferott, R. Zaninelli, R. Bauersachs, E. Volger and H.J. Meiselman 55 In vitro effects of norepinephrine (NE) and isoprenaline (IP) on erythrocyte rheology under normal and pathologic conditions
- E.A. Schmalzer and S. Chien 69 Effect of methylxanthines, cytochalasin B and FMLP on neutrophil filterability in a constant flow system
- Joint Session: Hyperlipidemia and Haemorheology*
- S. Montefusco, A. Gnasso, N. Scarpato, P. Rubba, G. Nappi, C. Cortese, G. Pandolfi and A. Postiglione 81 Hemorheological effects of LDL-apheresis in familial hypercholesterolemia
- Joint Session: Hypertension and Cardiovascular Disease*
- P. Cherubini, M. Bozzoni, R. Agosti, A. Clivati, R. Somazzi and E. Longhini 89 Red blood cell filterability in essential hypertension: Role of transmembranary ions fluxes
- M.W. Rampling, M.D. Feher, P.S. Sever and R.S. Elkeles 101 Haemorheological disturbances in non-insulin-dependent diabetes and the effects of concomitant hypertension

R. Koppensteiner, M. Jung, E. Minar and H. Ehringer	109	Poster Session: Thrombogenesis and Platelets Increased platelet aggregation (PA) but no further hemorheological alterations in patients with recent transient ischemic attacks (TIAs)
