EDITORIAL NOTE

This issue contains two Round Tables which, however, cannot be published in their entirety as not all presentations pertaining to them were received. These Round Tables, entitled "The Rationale of Rheological Pharmacological Strategy - I" and "The Rationale of Rheological Pharmacological Strategy - II") are, therefore, published each as Part A in this issue. Part B of any of these Round Tables will be published in subsequent issues soon after they have been received and presented in accordance with our Instructions to Authors.
