

SCIENTIFIC PROGRAM

The Scientific Program consists of Plenary Lectures, Oral Communications and Poster Sessions. The Plenary Lectures are given by Invited Speakers. A discussion of the individual contributions is part of each session.

The 6th European Conference takes place under the general heading 'Haemorheology and Microcirculation'. The aim of the Conference is to highlight the links between these two related disciplines.

CONGRESS LANGUAGE

The official language is English. There are no simultaneous translations.