

Contents Volume 4

No. 1

Editorials

- Thirty years after thalidomide: still plenty to do
K.H. Kimbel (Germany) 1
- Good enough for Iganga?
G. Dukes (Netherlands) 13

Regular Papers

- In vitro investigation of the possible influence of inorganic mercury and hydrogen peroxide on the formation of peroxides in a polyunsaturated fatty acid system (linoleic acid)
B. Fredin and L. Krabisch (Sweden) 19
- Registration of drug use in a birth defect monitoring system: a priority worthy of emphasis!
C.S. De Vries, H.E.K. De Walle, M.C. Cornel and L.T.W. De Jong-van den Berg (Netherlands) 27
- Adverse drug reaction reporting in Europe: some problems of comparison
M. Lindquist and I.R. Edwards (Sweden) 35
- Medication use during pregnancy in relation to maternal characteristics
P.H. Verkerk, J.D. Reerink, W.P. Hengreen and S.E. Buitendijk 47
- Liability of the pharmacist and drug induced injury: practical implications of the current liability debate for pharmacists
F. Moss (Netherlands) 53
- Human growth hormone: challenge to non-therapeutic and experimental use
J. Mendelson (USA) 61

Reviews

- Cyclofem: a new once-a-month injectable contraceptive 71
- Reorganisation of the health care systems of Eastern Europe. Using the experience of a new start in Eastern Germany following German re-unification
B. Schirmer (Germany) 79

Reports

- Obesitas 87
- Symposium: controversies in asthma therapy 89

Profile
DES Daughters vs. several Pharmaceutical Companies	93
Book Review
Bad medicine: the prescription drug industry in the third world	95
Forthcoming Meetings	99
Information for Authors	101
No. 2
Regular Papers
Liver transplantation: a success in most cases. But what about the less fortunate patients? J. Heyink and T. Tymstra (Netherlands)	103
Mortality associated with surgery: a case review study K. Gannon (UK)	117
A study on the awareness of the use of medicines among high school students aged 14–16 years in a co-educational school in North India T. Oommen (India)	127
Psychiatry's role in the holocaust P.R. Breggin (USA)	133
Reviews
The biological effects of radiation R.A. De Vries, M. De Bruin, J.J.M. Marx and A. Van de Wiel (Netherlands)	149
Unnecessary injections in developing countries: the risk and costs H.V. Wyatt and S. Mahadevan (UK, India)	167
Information for Authors	177
No. 3
Editorial
The "FDA approval defense": penetrating the protective shield D.W. Sigelman (USA)	179
Regular Papers
Vascular complications following therapeutic and diagnostic cardiac catheterisation by the femoral artery M. Bitsch, O. Lüsberg-Larsen and T.V. Schroeder (Denmark)	191
Mercury release from dental amalgam fillings B. Fredin (Sweden)	197

	253
One-year follow-up after the first prescription of strong analgesics outside hospital H.T. Sørensen, E. Ejlersen, J. Møller-Petersen, H.H. Rasmussen, H. Hamburger and F. Olesen (Denmark)	209
Safety of maternal long-term indomethacin tocolysis A. Schoenfeld, M. Hod, P. Merlob, S. Friedman and J. Ovadia (Israel)	215
Internality and externality correlates of potential drivers among high school pupils in Holon (Israel) U. Brook and A. Weitzman (Israel)	223
Case Histories
Recovery from amyotrophic lateral sclerosis and from allergy after removal of dental amalgam fillings O. Redhe and J. Pleva (Sweden)	229
Short Report
The Accutrend® — a safe device for blood glucose determinations in hospitalized patients? B. Zernikow and E. Michel (Germany)	237
Profile
The Cochrane Collaboration. Making the results of controlled trials properly accessible A. Herxheimer (UK)	241
Hippocrates	245
Book Review
Risk areas in medical practice	247
Announcement	249
Forthcoming Meetings	250
Contents of Volume 4	251
Announcement from the Publisher	255
Information for Authors	256