

---

Editorial Commentary

---

The following two papers (Kovaleski and Heitman, Timm and Fyke) examine the interaction of testing/exercise protocols. Many of the traditional procedures used in our clinics are somewhat empiric and studies such as these should be helpful in determining whether changes are required or better sequences exist. IES

Terry Malone