Editorial

This issue is the first part (PART I) of the Special Issue with selected papers from the International Conference of Computational and Mathematical Methods in Sciences and Engineering, which took place at Alicante, Spain (September 2002).

The second part (PART II) of the Special Issue with selected papers from the above conference will be appeared in Volume 4 Issue 1, early next year.

In this issue we have also included and a regular paper entitled: Exponentially-Fitted Extended One-Step Methods by G. Vanden Berghe and M. Van Daele. Finally this issue includes books reviews from three books of Springer-Verlag.
