

Contents of Volume 11

Altena, J.W., see Tuinen, H.K. van	321
Balk, B.M., The new consumer price indices of Statistics Netherlands	119
CES, A minimum programme of priority statistics for countries in transition	157
CES, Declaration on “Statistics for Social Progress” for the Social Summit	229
Chandler, W., The value of household work in Canada, 1992	171
Finkel, Y., see Sabag, M.	95
Finlay, H., see Monty, A.	205
Garonna, P., Statistical “decentramento” in Italy: significance and implications	75
Garonna, P., Statistics facing the concerns of a changing society	147
Humbel, R., Geographical information systems for the analysis, presentation and dissemination of statistical data – the Swiss experience	19
Hundepool, A., STATview: new ways for the dissemination of statistical data	197
Imbens, H.C.M., see Tuinen, H.K. van	321
Jansson, K., Use of administrative registers for income statistics in Sweden	211
Longva, S., Social indicators and the measurement of living conditions. The conceptual basis and some recent Norwegian experience	297
Ludley, J., Migration to open system and relational databases: recent experience and lessons learned	193
Medin, K. and Wilson, B., Quality assurance and quality assessment in official statistics: the case of Sweden’s panel Census of Agriculture	125
Monty, A. and Finlay, H., Strengths and weaknesses of administrative data sources: experiences of the Canadian Business Register	205

Radermacher, W., Sustainable income: reflections on the valuation of nature in environmental-economic accounting	35
Ringqvist, M., Social statistics – changed perspectives	261
Sabag, M. and Finkel, Y., The Israeli Consumer Price Index: alternative computing methods for an “Item Price Index”	95
Schirinzi, G.M.F., Quality control in Italian agricultural censuses	1
Szilágyi, G., The European Comparison Programme 1990 – an international comparison of Gross Domestic Product	53
Tengblad, Å., Social accounting in Sweden – a progress report	273
Tuinen, H.K. van, Altena, J.W. and Imbens, H.C.M., Surveys, registers and integration in social statistics	321
Vanoli, A., Extension of national accounts: opportunities provided by the implementation of the 1993 SNA	183
Vogel, J., Social indicators and social reporting. Traditions and current options for the development of comparative social indicators for the European Union	241
Wilson, B., see Medin, K.	125